

Visual Rules for Course Page Layout on #dariahTeach

This document describes the visual rules applied to the course page layout on #dariahTeach.

1. Heading style on Introduction Page
2. Unit Titles on Introduction Page
3. Position and dimension of the images embedded in the course pages
4. Alignment and dimension of the images embedded in the course pages
 - 4.1 Centre Alignment of Image
 - 4.2 Right Alignment \(wrapping text around an image\)
5. LightBox effect to enlarge the image embedded
6. Size and the position of the embedded videos
7. Visual Style for "Exercise" and "Case Study"
8. Visual style for "Reference" section
9. Font size rules and Section Headings
10. The colour applied to hyperlinks

1. Heading style on Introduction Page

The screenshot displays the course page layout for "Introduction to Design Thinking & Maker Culture". The page features a dark teal header with the DariahTeach logo and navigation links. A sidebar on the left contains a "Course Custom Menu" with a red box highlighting the "Introduction" link. The main content area has a red box around the heading "Introduction to Design Thinking & Maker Culture". The page includes a breadcrumb trail, a list of units, and a detailed description of the course content.